Included in the package are a couple of extras: first, a download code for the Hades original soundtrack, by composer Darren korb, best known for his work on developer supergiant's past titles like transistor and bastion. The soundtrack features two and a half hours of blood-pumping music created for the game. Next, you get a full-color 32-page character compendium booklet, featuring beautiful artwork of the game's colorful cast of gods, ghosts, and monsters, all by supergiant's art director Jen Zee. And, of course, you get the game itself, offering dozens or even hundreds of hours of exciting action and compelling story. Escape the underworld again—or for the first time.
